

What is BGMC?

BGMC is an acronym that stands for Boys and Girls Missionary Challenge. It is the Assemblies of God compassion and missions programs for boys and girls.

What Does BGMC Do?

BGMC is the Assemblies of God missions program for kids that instills a heart of compassion to reach the lost through praying, giving, and going. All funds raised through BGMC go to meet critical needs around the world such as feeding programs, water wells, Bible schools, curriculum, and whatever else a missionary needs in their part of the world.

Did you know? Among the Assemblies of God Missionaries, most were initially called to be missionaries while they were children!

Where Do BGMC Offerings Come From?

- Young children giving in Buddy Barrels, which is what we will be doing at New Hope Preschool
- Older children making faith promises
- Parents and other adults receiving special offerings

What Does BGMC Money Buy?

Missionaries can use BGMC funds for any ministry supplies that relate to evangelism and discipleship.

- Puppets, music, and video tapes
- Tracts, Bibles, and literature
- Sound systems, computers, and copy machines
- And a whole lot more!

Why Give Offerings To BGMC?

BGMC goes to where the need is the greatest, where the timing is the most urgent, and where people's lives can be changed forever.

Why are we doing BGMC at New Hope Preschool?

We have two goals with BGMC at New Hope. First, we want to financially assist with purchasing supplies to assist needy families around the world. Second, we want to begin to instill awareness and compassion for needy kids and families. We see a need and we help fill the need. Please send your child's filled barrel to preschool on the last Monday of every month!
